Salooneer Blazes Away From Door—Patrolmen Try Their Luck

TWO MEN IN TRUCK HELD

James Kernan, a salooneer at 4687 Germantown avenue, interrupted six men attempting to rob the basement of his saloon at 3 o'clock this morning and fired five shots at them as they fled in an automobile and motor truck. One of the robbers is believed to have been hit.

Kernan was preparing to go to bed when he heard some one forcing the doors leading to the basement of the saloon, which is connected with Kernan's house.

He procured a revolver and opening a side door, stationed on the corner as a lookout, replied, "Get back, there," and fired a shot at Kernan. Kernan shot once at the lookout and closed the door.

When two men who were attempting to force the doors of the basement joined the lookout and three other men. They entered a touring car and a motor truck, which was painted "Laundry."

Kernan again opened his door and fired five shots at the robbers. They retreated south on Germantown avenue. Mrs. James Reilly, of 16 East Wyoming avenue, appeared at a front window and heard the men say, "Get another driver," which led the police to believe Kernan wounded one of the men.

Patrolman Fisher, of the Germantown station, heard the shots, and as the two cars rushed past fired several shots. Patrolman Joseph Lehman, of Germantown and Roberts avenue, also fired at the speeding machines.

Later this morning, after the alarm had gone out, Patrolmen Lehr and Schall noticed a small truck, proceeded by a small touring car, going north on Broad street from Windmill avenue. One of the patrolmen got in a passing touring car and, after a chase, caught up with the truck. The touring car got away.

Two men in the truck gave their names as George Shaffer, Fifteenth and Foster streets, and John Duffy, of 1522 Ogden street. Their replies to questions being unsatisfactory, they were arrested and arraigned before Magistrate McHenry in Central Station. Upon request of Captain Souder, who declared Duffy to be a "bad egg," the men were held as suspicious characters under $22,000 bail each, for a further hearing next Tuesday. It was declared at the hearing one of them said: "If we had had a gun they would never have caught us."

MISERY LIKES COMPANY

Two Men Who Bought Prisoner's Release "Get Rough" and Are Arrested

Two men, one a paroled prisoner, who sought to have a friend released from the Eleventh and Winter streets station last night on a copy of the charge, were themselves arrested and held today in $800 bail each for the grand jury, charged with aggravated assault and battery.

The men are Harry Provan, Race street near Eighth, and Abe Marowitz, Porter street near Fourth. They went to the station house at 10:30 o'clock last night and asked for a copy of the charge against Frank Erlich, otherwise "Prison Legs," arrested earlier last night at Thirteenth and Market streets, charged with assault and battery.

House Sergeant Taggart told the two men a copy of the charge against Erlich had already been issued. A dispute followed and Provan is alleged to have struck Taggart on the mouth. Taggart summoned aid and the men were arrested. They were arraigned today before Magistrate Grellis. Marowitz, it developed, was under parole from the Eastern Penitentiary.

"When I opened the front door I felt a draft coming through the hallway," Mr. Provan explained.

"I knew the windows had been closed, and on going to the side of the house I discovered a window had been jammed."

"When we lit the lights in the dining room we realized that thieves had been at work. Nearly all the silverware which we had in the dresses had been taken."

"The second floor seemed to suffer more than the first," Mr. Evans said. "Articles on my chiffonier were lying all over the room and several pieces of silverware on Mrs. Evans' bureau were not overlooked by the robbers."

"I reported the matter to the Germantown police as soon as I realized what had occurred, because I do not think that the thieves had been there more than an hour before we arrived."

Jennie Edlin, a servant, was sleeping on the third floor of the house during the robbery.

"I heard some one moving about downstairs," the maid said, "but I thought that Mr. and Mrs. Evans had returned, and paid no attention to it."

HOME OF BANK HEAD ROBBED OF SILVER

Thieves Who Ransack Residence of Thomas Evans Also Get Jewels

'JIMMY' WINDOW TO ENTER

Thieves entered the home of Thomas Evans, vice president of the Pelham Trust Co., last night and stole jewelry and silverware valued at several hundred dollars.

Returning to his home, 436 West Stafford street, Germantown, with Mrs. Evans at 11 o'clock last evening, Mr. Evans found the front door open and the house in disorder. On investigation it was found that bureau drawers and closets had been forced by the intruders and articles of all descriptions strewn about the floor in their search for valuables.

"When I opened the front door I felt a draft coming through the hallway," Mr. Evans explained.

U. S. SEVERE TO FICKLE GIRL

Deports Bride-to-Be Who Met New Swain at Sea

Miss Leonilda De Angelis and Raffaele La Rosa were taken from the detention house at the immigration station at Gloucester today, and sent to New York for deportation as undesirable immigrants.

The girl had contracted to wed Vincenzo Mizarie, of 5100 Warren street, West Philadelphia, on her arrival here, but on the way over jilted him for La Rosa.

Mizarie had both arrested when the girl refused to marry him. La Rosa declared he will marry the girl in Italy and try to bring her back with him.

"When I opened the front door I felt a draft coming through the hallway," Mr. Evans explained.

"I knew the windows had been closed, and on going to the side of the house I discovered a window had been jammed."

Men's New Spring Suits and Top Coats

A revelation in lowered costs!

IT IS, in truth, a revelation to men who have not bought clothing since 1920, to find that prices here average about ONE-THIRD LESS THAN LAST YEAR, and that some of our EXTRA-SPECIALS are about one-half the 1920 prices! Here, we believe, are the most attractive assortments and the greatest values in this city.

HERE and here only in this city you can buy the Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes, the Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing, the "Alco" Clothing, and our own new line, the "Wickham."

HERE are a few brief notes directing attention to particularly desirable lines and groups, at the new lower prices. Hundreds of men will buy them to-morrow and Saturday, and wear them with pride and satisfaction:

$30.00 SUITS—"Alco" and other lines, all-wool herringbone, stripes, neat checks, and plain browns and blues.

$35.00 TWEED SUITS—the popular gray and tan mixtures, in youthful and conservative models; all-wool, finely tailored.

$25.00 SERGE SUITS—all-wool, fast-color blue; well-tailored models for men and young men.

$62.50 SUITS of the famous Hockanum silk-mixed worsted—as fine as money can buy—and this price is even less than present low market value.

$45.00 TOP COATS—smart, new models of new herringbone fabrics, from the Stein-Bloch Co.

$47.50 "ALCO" SUITS of fine unfinished worsteds, in a variety of good colorings. Men of all sizes can

$40.00 and $50.00—Suits from the Stein-Bloch Co. and Hart, Schaffner & Marx. Men who have worn these famous makes will be glad to find these grades so much lower than last season.

$35.00 TOP COATS—of gabardine in the popular tan tones.

$32.50 TOP COATS—young men's double-breasted styles in favorite shades.

$30.00 O V E R C O A T S—light-weight, dark Oxfords; conservative models; regular and stout sizes.

The superiority of the Steinway Piano is so generally recognized that no barrier of local pride stands against its leadership as the greatest of musical instruments. Everywhere the Steinway Piano is recognized as America's one great art product, challenging the admiration of the aesthetic; becoming the standard of the craft of pianomaking; accepted as the means of musical cultivation. This great leadership is founded on the excellence of Steinway grands—in later years further extended through the superior qualities of the smaller grands. Only a master can reduce size and retain musical qualities—but the Steinways, in Style M Grand (5 ft. 7 in. length) have triumphed over all difficulties in uniting beauty of tone, convenience of size, and minimum price. Style M, in mahogany, $1375. N. STETSON & CO., 1111 Chestnut Street, only Philadelphia representatives of Steinway & Sons.
